

The Erie & Kalamazoo Railroad was incorporated in 1833. The first trip from Toledo to Adrian, Michigan in 1836 was horse-drawn. The first trip with a locomotive was made in 1837. Its top speed was twenty miles per hour.