This Day in Toledo History

A new feature on our Facebook page takes a daily look back at major events in Toledo history. The postings often generate some interesting discussion. Check us out daily at <https://www.facebook.com/toledohistory>

Made in Toledo – our first interactive online exhibit

Toledo has an incredible manufacturing history. Many of the items you will see in our virtual exhibit helped change the American lifestyle. Click here to encounter the Made in Toledo experience!

Historic Look at Early Radio in Toledo

From the Toledo History Museum Quarterly Journal of December 2007 we pull Marjorie Waterfield's look back at "WSPD Radio in the 1940s" and local radio before television and the Internet. Radio was our audio window to the world with the broadcast day filled with a variety of programming. Read Marjorie's well-researched article by clicking on this link.

Toledo History Museum is temporarily closed

The Toledo History Museum, 425 North St. Clair, is closed while new exhibits are put in place. Watch our Facebook page for information on when the Museum will re-open.

Museum has a Board opening

Are you interested in becoming more active in telling the story of Toledo's history, culture, and heritage? The Toledo History Museum has an opening on its Board of Trustees. For more information contact Board president London Mitchell at LMitchell@ToledoHistoryMuseum.org

Support the Museum

Your donation and membership will help the Toledo History Museum, a not-for-profit corporation, display the large and rich tapestry of the Toledo story. We are not only focused on the industrial history of Toledo but also are showcasing social, cultural, and ethnic parts of Toledo history. Donations can be sent to the Toledo History Museum, PO Box 485, Toledo, OH 43697-0485.
